

Turkey, ham, mashed potatoes;
Cranberry sauce and stuffed tomatoes,
Make our Thanksgiving dinner a delight,
By the dim and flickering light.

Grandma, grandpa, auntie, too;
Brother, sister, and baby Sue.
Come and get it piping hot,
Remember, Thanksgiving's for the lot.

Step Up Plans to Help Laid-Off Douglas Workers

A second meeting of the placement committee, set up to find new jobs for Douglas El Segundo workers being terminated in 1962, was held in the company's headquarters recently.

Notification will be given in December to all employees whose jobs are expected to terminate during early January, it was announced by K. G. Farrar, Douglas Aircraft Co. vice president-manufacturing.

Placement Committee representatives from the Douglas Aircraft Co., U.S. Navy, International Association of Machinists, and the California State Employment Agency, are coordinating their efforts and workers with available local jobs immediately following the December announcement, Farrar said.

Committee plans include temporary expansion of regular California State Employment Service Facilities. Special interviews and job placement areas will be furnished on company premises. The Douglas Co., U.S. Navy, and union officials will also cooperate in locating jobs for the laid-off workers, working with the State Employment Agency and through its offices. An intense program will be undertaken to notify all prospective local employers who can offer job openings. Members of the committee group have emphasized their determination to locate new employment for a maximum number of job workers, Farrar stated.

Bernie Jones Quartette in Area Again

The Bernie Jones Quartette, one of the most captivating comedy-musical groups, sparking the brightest entertainment ever, has returned to the Marineland Restaurant in the "Porpoise Room."

The popular song-and-fun team, signed by owner George M. Foster for a six-week engagement, entertain nightly except Mondays at the seacoast dining establishment in Palos Verdes.

Notable for their showmanship and instrumental artistry, as well as show-stopping comedy, Bernie Jones Quartette will offer merry-making entertainment during the holidays as they have in previous years. It was this group that inaugurated Marineland Restaurant's "star-name" policy for the "Porpoise Room" in 1957. So enthusiastically received have been their hilarious performances that Foster has brought them back every winter for the holidays.

A large following welcomed them back opening night, pre-seeing many exhilarating evenings of musical enjoyment between now and Dec. 31.
